One of the central themes of the memoir is the exploration of deaf identity. Hughes vividly portrays the tension between being part of the deaf community and integrating into the hearing society.

- Societal Attitudes and Discrimination

The memoir critically examines societal perceptions:

- Medical Model of Deafness: Hughes discusses how society often views deafness as a defect needing correction, emphasizing hearing aids or cochlear implants rather than embracing deaf culture.
- Accessibility Issues: He highlights the lack of accommodations, such as interpreters or captioning, which hinder full participation.
